

Gentlemen,

As a resident of Indiana I am opposed to the weakening of Indiana's law concerning telephone privacy. Since the enactment of the law, residents of the state have benefited from unwanted phone solicitations.

Any changes to the law would only result in an increase of unwanted phone solicitations.

Your support is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Bill Kent